CALL TO WORSHIP ~ adapted from Psalm 41

Leader: Those who sit with the poor laugh;
the heart of compassion is joyful.
The Lord remembers sweetness in the day of bitterness.

People: Those who love the broken
are kept from the destruction of dishonesty;
they abide in a peace-trusting joy.
They are not abandoned to darkness,
nor to the shouts and derision of demons.
When their body fails them, the presence of mercy keeps them;
in their brokenness, they are whole; they know the depth of love.
When I considered myself, I said,
"Lord, let me see this mercy;
remove my darkness, for it is great;
restore my soul, for I fail."

INVITATION TO REPENTANT PRAYERS

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Leader: If we have taken material blessings greedily, and flaunted our good fortunes without sharing it with those not so well placed.

People: Lord have mercy.

If we have taken the love of family and friends for granted, showing with meagre gratitude, and if we have been unwilling to love those folks who may be stubborn.

Christ have mercy.

If we have treated faith as something we deserved, and forgotten that it is your unbearable gift through Christ who, while we were still sinners, died for us.

Lord have mercy.

Most holy God, kind sharer of all good gifts, enemy of all that hoards and excludes, please continue to save your people from their sins. Forgive and uplift us, enlighten and embolden us, and restore to us the joy which nothing in this selfish world can give. Through Christ Jesus our Saviour. Amen.

A moment of silence for personal prayers of confession.
